

Tips From the PVHS Library
Marine Biology: Marine Invertebrate
Mrs. Wood – Fall 2011

End Product:

1 page written + Works Cited
3 sources required
Works Cited page
Paper mache

Marine Invertebrate of Your Choice

Physical appearance
Size parameters
Feeding habits
Reproduction
Habitat
Areas of the ocean that it frequents
Environmental importance

Sources

Print (see books on cart)

Electronic – Databases (pvhigh.com, under Academics, under Library, see Databases)

Science Online
Student Resource Center
Ebsco Host

Free Web Recommendations

Monterey Bay Aquarium: www.montereybayaquarium.org/
Under Animals & Activities – See Animal Guide
Under Animals & Activities - see Podcasts, Videos & Cams
Under Save the Oceans – see Research and Conservation

Marinebio: Mission is to share the wonders of the ocean to inspire conservation, education, research, and a sea ethic. Marinebio.org

National Aquarium in Baltimore: <http://www.aqua.org/>

Aquarium of the Pacific at Long Beach: aquariumofpacific.org (see Online Learning)

Cabillo Marine Aquarium: cabrillomarineaquarium.org (see Research & Conservation)

National Geographic
animals.nationalgeographic.com/animals/invertebrates

Birch Aquarium: <http://aquarium.ucsd.edu> (see Education, then see Learning Resource, then see Student Resources or Exhibit Features)

